PPG Champions, youll never sing that!

Swindon Town become the first team to win a league title on Points per Game (PPG) as the 2019-2020 league two season draws to a close.

With the corona virus pandemic resulting in the remaining matches being unable to finish the season has been halted after 36 games played.

Swindons impressive run earlier in the year helped them to the top of the table with 69 points which averaged out at 1.92 PPG.

As a result Swindon will now participate in League One next season where they will take on former Premier League clubs including Hull, Ipswich, Sunderland and Charlton.

Will we ever see anything like this ever again.
